

Canadian Insure-tech Darling Zensurance Continues it's Hypergrowth by Expanding To Yet Another Province

From British Columbia to Newfoundland, Zensurance makes business insurance easy for Canadian entrepreneurs.

Zensurance Inc., Canada's leading provider of business insurance focused on helping Canadian entrepreneurs and business owners get insurance coverage quickly and easily, is announcing it is now licensed to operate virtually from coast to coast.

Zensurance now offers its award winning business insurance solutions, without the traditional fees and paper-heavy processes, across 9 provinces. These provinces include: British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland and Labrador. This milestone marks the company's determination to provide small businesses the same rich experience and tailored advice typically available only to the largest companies.

"We are thrilled to be able to offer the most seamless and intuitive business insurance solutions across Canada. Business owners deserve a high quality experience and a provider they can trust" said Danish Yusuf, CEO of Zensurance.

Zensurance works with over 50 insurance companies across Canada and builds highly curated insurance packages tailored to each industry, geography and size of company. Zensurance has won many awards for leading the digital revolution in the Canadian insurance industry. Zensurance is also a big supporter of the SickKids Foundation through its Tech4SickKids initiative.

For detailed information about this important announcement, please click here.

About Zensurance: Zensurance is an online commercial insurance brokerage obsessed with making the process of purchasing small business insurance simple and fast. With a strong focus on technology, and a national footprint, Zensurance has enjoyed phenomenal growth since its founding in 2016.

For media enquiries and interview requests please contact:

Juan Venegas

Zensurance Inc.

juan@zensurance.com

<https://www.zensurance.com>

(647) 264-2029